As of lucky Friday, April 13, 2018, I am back in service. There were many hoops to jump through, but the startup is finally complete.

I am looking forward to renewing patient relationships in an all-female environment.

Office hours will start Friday, April 13th afternoon and expanded as time goes by.

Retirement was not for me; I find that most physicians think the same. I have the opportunity to return to work in the field I love.

Thank you for your support and patience.

Ed Davis, M.D.
